It is for consideration who should furnish the certificate required in the case of Major Foulkes - whether it is the Senior Surgeon or anybody else. The point is raised since Major Foulkes as Durbar Surgeon is not serving under the Senior Surgeon, though in the capacity of officer in charge of the Hospital at Mysore, he should be deemed to be subordinate to the Senior Surgeon.

DRAFT. 3

D.O.No. 168/Eu 1/12 Bangalore,

14th December 1912.

My dear Sir,

I send herewith for His Highness' orders a note by the Secretary, General and Revenue Departments, in which the question has been raised as to by whom the certificate required in the annual confidential report to be ~~submitted~~ supplied to the Residency ~~on~~ Major Foulkes, Durbar Physician and Surgeon, should be ~~made~~ supplied, whether by the Senior Surgeon or any other ~~Officer~~ authority.

Obviously Major Foulkes has two capacities, one as Durbar Physician & Surgeon, and the other as Officer in charge of the General Hospital at Mysore. In the former capacity, the proper authority for furnishing the ~~reports~~ reports would be yourself ~~on behalf of the Maharaja~~ under H.H. orders, and in the latter, the Senior Surgeon.

If you will kindly call upon

Major

4

Major Foulkes to furnish the particulars required on page 1 of the report and also favour me with your own remarks ~~as to the intelligence, ability, self-reliance etc., of Major Foulkes~~, as required by Column 1 on page 2 of the report, I shall embody the ~~remarks~~ some remarks of the Local Government and submit the papers formall for the final approval and orders of His Highness.

3 printed forms of the report are appended

In the meanwhile, I shall also consult the Senior Surgeon as to Major Foulkes' work in the General Hos-pital at Mysore.

Yours sincerely,
